Section 3: INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDER

1. BACKGROUND

One of the key responsibilities of Development & Panchayats Department, Haryana is to ensure sanitation and solid & liquid waste management in rural areas of Haryana. Swachh Bharat Mission ("SBM") - Gramin program was launched by the Ministry of Drinking Water and Sanitation, Government of India, to undertake reforms and facilitate investments in the rural sector. Solid Waste Management (SWM) is the priority area of the department and is making continued efforts in improving SWM in Haryana for the past few years.

The Department intends to create socially, economically, and environmentally viable solid waste management system through developing an environmentally and aesthetically sound SWM projects in 143 blocks in rural areas of Haryana in order to reduce the associated health risks due to unscientific handling and disposal of solid waste. The proposed project is intended to have a positive impact on the socio-economic condition of all the people living in the Gram Panchayats and people who are directly or indirectly associated with the project.

Door to Door Collection with source segregation refers to collection of waste from all households and commercial areas in segregated manner (i.e Dry and Wet waste), Transportation of waste in segregated manner to Solid Waste Management Sheds/ Processing site, Processing of wet waste/organic waste in Compost Pits situated in the SWM sheds while segregating the dry waste in compartments also present in the SWM shed or site designated by CEO,ZP/ BDPO for the same. This would ensure proper segregation of collected waste and easy transportation for Recycler. Disposal of all inert like material will be transferred to designated Sanitary landfill site.

All operational aspects including manpower, vehicles both Primary & Secondary (except provided solid waste management shed) would be borne by the Selected Bidder who shall be responsible for operation and management of all such Infrastructure provided under the Project.

In light of the above, Department has prepared this "Expression of Interest" for undertaking of Door to Door Collection, Segregation, Transportation & Disposal of Solid Waste in Rural areas of Haryana wherein Block wise details to be executed has been provided at Annexure -1; Bidder are advised to verify all the details themselves before submitting their responses.
